PERFORMANCE LICENSE AGREEMENT

Copyright Law clearly states that no performance may be undertaken without the consent of the copyright owner and so it is essential that you have this license in place before you undertake a production. Purchase of performance materials alone does not allow you the right to perform our musicals—Fully filling out this agreement, signing it, returning it, and paying royalties due does. Royalty prices quoted apply only to amateur and school performances. If you are a professional company please contact us for additional information.

Please read the following conditions of this license carefully .

We are sending payment of performance royalties at the rate of $100 US for each performance open to the public.

We are also (or have sent) payment of $120 as the required purchase/copying fees for our rehearsal materials which will be sent to us digitally. We understand that this fee entitles us to print copies of the PDF script, vocal/chorus score, piano/conductor score, production notes, and posters, and to play backing tracks & music as needed for rehearsals and performance. It also entitles us to use show graphics, logos, and trademarks in creating our own posters, programs and announcements for the show, We agree that none of these materials will be shared or given to other organizations for their use, without permission of T. E. Breitenbach.

We will ensure that the author's name "T. E. Breitenbach" is credited on all posters and programs

We will ensure that the endorsement "Produced with the permission of Premiere Musicals Guild" is printed in our program.
